SPECIAL REMINDER

There is NO PARKING in the driveway. You may drop off your child, but you may NOT PARK and run into school if even for a minute!

We would prefer that you park in the lot and bring your child(ren) into school. You may also drop your child(ren) off by the north side sidewalk.

Also, please watch your child and other children; DO NOT let them run free. There is a lot of traffic before and after school and we do not want anyone to get hurt. Thank you for your cooperation.

The number of kids who are read to every day drops significantly at age 9, reports a recent Scholastic study. So regardless of your child's age or comprehension level, parents should continue the read together ritual. Or at least have your child read to you - reading aloud can expand his/her vocabulary and your conversations can help your child understand and enjoy more the love of reading. "This is how you can raise a confident, lifelong reader," says Diane W. Frankenstein, author of Reading Together: Everything You Need To Know to Raise a Child Who Loves to Read.
